County Executive Craig Announces Resignation of HR Director Scott Gibson

(Bel Air, MD) - - Harford County Executive David R. Craig has today announced that Director of Human Resources Scott Gibson will be leaving county government effective October 1.

Mr. Gibson has accepted a position as Vice President of Human Resources with Melwood, a non-profit that creates jobs and opportunities to improve the lives of people with disabilities in the Greater Washington, DC area.

"Over the last seven years, we have worked to make our HR processes more efficient and sustainable, ensuring that our commitments to our employees will continue to be met in the future while remaining fiscally responsible," stated County Executive David R. Craig.

"I thank Scott for his seven years of service to county government, and wish him well in his future endeavors," County Executive Craig added.

County Executive Craig has named Senior Assistant County Attorney Deborah Duvall as Acting Director of the Department of Human Resources. Since joining county government in January 1992, she has represented the HR department on legal matters, including union negotiations, training, policy review, development, disciplinary actions, complaints, and appeals.
